

VVA congratulates Shoop on speech

Special to Highlands News-Sun

SEBRING — Paul Hinman, 1st Vice President of Vietnam Veterans of America congratulates Sebring's Mayor John Shoop on his speech at the Remembrance Ceremony held last Monday, Memorial Day, at the Military Sea Services Museum in Sebring.

"Mr. Shoop said he was there to represent all Sebring employees and citizens in remembering those who had given their lives to protect our freedom," said the group.

Major General James E. Livingston (Retired), a Medal of Honor recipient, was the keynote speaker who gave an inspiring standing ovation speech with over 300 plus people standing.

"Kudos to the Veteran Council of Highlands County for sponsoring such a wonderful remembrance for Veterans and to the Sea Service Museum for hosting the
